Week 6
Exercises

1. What would you consider the top 10 'debatable matters' in the Christian church right now? Do we look down on, judge or condemn each other on these issues?

2. What authorities should Christians submit to in Britain today? Are there areas where we should be 'obeying God rather than men' notwithstanding the general principle of submission to authority?

3. In studying the book of Romans, what similarities and differences have you discovered among the 1st century church at Rome and our church? Are we focussing enough on the people?
